Daiquiri	Martini	2 shots white rum 1 shot fresh lime 3/4 shot simple simple 1 lime wheel for garnish	Shake &amp; fine strain into a chilled martini glass. Add the garnish.	Essentially a rum sour - the daiquiri is a flexible recipe you can experiment a lot with. To make frozen variations, blend the mix with a scoop of crushed ice.
Irish Coffee	Irish Coffee Glass	2 shots Irish whiskey 1 shot simple syrup 4-5 shots hot coffee Top with whipped cream	Build in an Irish coffee glass. Float the whipped cream on top. Serve with a long teaspoon
Long Island Iced Tea	Hurricane	1/2 shot vodka 1/2 shot white rum 1/2 shot blanco tequila 1/2 shot gin 1/2 shot triple sec 1/2 shot fresh lemon juice 1/2 shot simple syrup Top with cola 1 lemon wedge for garnish	Shake &amp; strain into an ice-filled hurricane glass. Top with cola. Add the garnish.	An easy way to remember this cocktail is that it's equal parts 5 white spirits with lemon juice & sugar syrup.
Mai Tai	Lge Old-Fashioned	1 shot dark rum 1 shot white rum 1/2 shot triple sec 3/4 shot orgeat syrup 1 shot fresh lime juice 2-3 mint sprigs for garnish	Shake &amp; strain into a large old-fashioned glass filled with crushed ice. Crown with crushed ice. Add the garnishes.	Arguably the most popular tiki drink on the planet.
Manhattan	Martini	2 shots bourbon or rye 1 shot sweet vermouth 2 dashes angostura bitters 1 cherry for garnish	Stir &amp; strain into a chilled martini glass. Add the garnish.	A dry manhattan is made with dry vermouth instead. A perfect manhattan is made with equal parts dry & sweet vermouth. Always ask your guest what bourbon or rye whiskey they'd prefer.

Essential Cocktails	Glass	Ingredients	Method	Notes
Margarita	Martini	1 1/2 shots blanco tequila 1 shot triple sec 3/4 shot fresh lime juice Half salt rim for garnish	Rim half of the glass with salt first. Shake &amp; fine strain into a chilled margarita glass.	Ask your guest if they'd like a salt rim - only ever rim half the glass. Add a shot of cranberry and you've made a Tequila Cosmo
Dry Martini	Martini	2 1/2 shots gin or vodka 1/2 shot dry vermouth 1 olive for garnish, or 1 lemon twist for garnish	Stir &amp; strain into a chilled martini glass. Add the garnish.	For a drier martini, add less vermouth. For a wetter martini, add more vermouth. For a dirty martini , add olive brine.
Espresso Martini	Coupe	1 1/2 shots vodka 1/2 shot coffee liqueur 1 shot espresso 1/2 shot vanilla syrup 3 espresso beans for garnish	Shake &amp; fine strain into a chilled coupe glass. Add the garnish.	Always use fresh espresso if possible. Great to experiment with. One of my favourite variations uses dark rum, vanilla syrup and a top with whipped cream - it's delicious!
Mojito	Collins	4-6 lime wedges 6-8 fresh mint leaves 2 shots white rum 2-3 teaspoons of white sugar Top with soda 2-3 mint sprigs for garnish	Muddle the lime wedges with the sugar in the bottom of a collins glass. Clap the mint leaves and add them to the glass with the rum. Fill with crushed ice and stir thoroughly. Top with soda water. Crown with crushed ice. Add the garnish.	Arguably the most popular summer cocktail in the world.
Moscow Mule	Copper Mug	2 shots vodka 1 shot fresh lime juice Top with ginger beer 1 lime wedge for garnish	Build in an ice-filled copper mug. Top with ginger beer. Add the garnish.	If you don't have a copper mug, use a collins glass.
Negroni	Rocks	1 shot gin 1 shot Campari 1 shot sweet vermouth 1 Orange twist for garnish	Build in an ice-filled rocks glass. Lightly stir. Add the garnish.	To add some flair, garnish with a flaming orange.
